

Disclosure Requirement for Use Variance Applicants

Pursuant to Ordinance 0-42-98, applicants, property owners and retained professionals for Use Variances must disclose all political contributions made during the course of the year prior to the filing of the application. This obligation is a continuing one, and the disclosure statement must be updated to reflect any contributions made during the pendency of the application. This disclosure statement must be filed with the application in order for the application to be deemed complete.

The attached copy of Ordinance 0-42-98, defines “Developer,” “Professional,” “Contribution,” and “Contribution Disclosure Statement” and specifically sets forth the disclosure requirements.
